Contacting Public Officials

We encourage you to stay as informed as possible and to take an active role in participating in the actions of your government. A great way to make your voice heard is to call or write your representatives when you feel it is necessary. When doing so, however, it is useful to keep in mind the following tips:

Be Brief – One issue per letter is best

Be Courteous – Abusive language or tone will not help your case

Be Specific – Name the bill (e.g. “HB 1212”) or the particular issue about which you are concerned

Be Original – Officials are usually leery of 1,000 letters that are identical

Be on Target – Write to the right person

Be Realistic – Your public officials live in a world of compromise

Be Available – Be sure to include your full name and address so that your official can respond to your letter

Be Early – It is best to write before legislation is drafted or budgets are proposed

To use e-mail to contact a senator, congressional representative or a governor, go to: <http://tinyurl.com/wv-local-officials>

The League of Women Voters is a non-profit organization supported by member dues and by non-member contributions.
